Friday May 27, 2011 marks the opening of the Sheboygan Theatre Company's fifth and final production of the season, "Guys and Dolls." The show will feature performers from all over Wisconsin, including Ozaukee, Dodge, and Sheboygan Counties. Vollrath Company sponsors the show and the seventy-seventh season is funded in part by the Stefanie H. Weill Charitable Fund and Acuity and the Arts.

Last done by the Theatre Company in 1990, "Guys and Dolls" tells the story about two guys and two dolls. It is a simple yet complicated story about love and New York City.

You have Nathan Detroit who loves club performer, Adelaide. He loves her so much they've been engaged for 14 years. Adelaide loves Nathan, even though he continually tries to make it rich but fails by to running an illegal craps game.

In order to get his latest craps game up and running, Nathan needs $1,000, so he bets the consummate bachelor, Sky Masterson, that he cannot take a doll, a woman, to Havana in a day. Thus, Sky goes to wooing Miss Sarah Brown, a mission lady who ironically is trying to clean up gambling and sinning in New York. It comes as a surprise to both when they actually start falling for each other.

The audience will get to hear such classics as "Luck Be a Lady," "Sit Down, You're Rockin' the Boat," and "Adelaide's Lament."

"Guys and Dolls" will open Friday, May 27, 2011, with subsequent performances on May 28, June 1, 2, 3 and 4 at 7:30 p.m. and a matinee on Sunday, May 29 at 2 p.m. The production will be presented at the Leslie W. Johnson Theatre, 2820 Union Avenue, Sheboygan.

Admission is $20 for adults, $16 for seniors sixty and over and $10 for students through to college. Tickets are available at the Theatre Company office in the Community Recreation Department, 607 S. Water Street, and also at the theatre box office 45 minutes before curtain of each performance.
