PROOF AUDITIONS

Director: Jennifer Sherron Stock (NY, NY)
Where: Leslie W. Johnson Theatre, 2820 Union Ave
Dates: Monday, December 12 OR Tuesday, December 13
Time: 6:30 to 9:00 p.m.
First Rehearsal: Wednesday, December 14, 2011
Production Dates: February 3-11, 2012

Proof is a powerful drama with multiple awards for writing and acting, including Tony, Pulitzer and Drama Desk. This show will give four individuals a chance to stretch their acting chops and perform an acclaimed show written by David Auburn.

ROBERT: (age around 40 to 60's)

Robert was once very prominent but has become worn with age and illness. He is not a slob but he never really paid attention to fashion. Once a brilliant mathematician, he has been brought down by mental illness. He loves his daughters and his work but his illness took away his ability to be continuously great at either. He has bouts of genius in both parenthood and math but they are fleeting.

CATHERINE: (late teens to early 30's)

Robert's youngest child, she is only 25 but has spent much of her life taking care of her father. She inherited much of her father's mathematic abilities, which she has never really been able to further. She is also worried about possibly inheriting her father's mental illness. She is not talkative but can be charming if she wants to be. She could be quite attractive but she doesn't pay much attention to her looks. Catherine tends to be quite manic after her father's death which could be grief or mental instability.

CLAIRE: (mid 20's-early 30's)

Catherine's older sister is 29 and is rather the opposite of her sister. Appearances are very important to Claire. She is extremely put together in everything, personal life, work, fashion, living. She wants everything in her life to be very neat and clean, which after her father's death, includes her sister. She is a successful financial professional, but doesn't have her father's or sister's mathematic genius and she knows it. She makes a lot of assumptions about other people and their lives but she truly loves her sister and wants the best for her.

HAL: (mid 20's to mid 30's)

Hal is a 28 year old, former student of Robert's. He idolized Robert and while he is a talented mathematician but not in the same league as Catherine or her father. He is a nice looking, put together guy but bit of a geek, which he embraces. He has a quirky charm that somehow connects with Catherine's personality. He should be a young, healthy contrast to that of Robert.

For the audition, candidates do not need to bring prepared material. Everyone will be given numerous opportunities to audition for a variety of roles. Direction may be given, but since you will be allowed more than one opportunity, no one need feel anxious about "getting it right the first time." The audition will involve reading selected scenes from the script.

Scripts are available for loan through the Theatre Company's office in the Community Recreation Department, 607 S. Water St. They may be picked up Monday through Friday between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. but must be returned to the Community Recreation Department by 4:00 p.m. on Monday, December 12. Questions - call 459-3779.
